The President's Letter to Sound Money Advocates.

DEFENDING THE SINGLE STANDARD

#If Reckless Discontent Should Sweep Our Currency From Its Safe Support the Most Defenseless of All Who Suffer Will be the Poor,"

CHICAGO, April 15.-Following is the text of President Cleveland's reply to the invitation of Chicago business men to address a meeting here in the interest of sound money:

"My attachment to this cause is so great and I know so well the hospitality and kindness of the people of Chicago that my personal inclination is strongly in favor of accepting your flattering invitation, but my judgment and my estimate of the proprieties of my official place obliges me to forego the enjoyment of participating in the occasion you contemplate.

"I hope, however, the event will mark the beginning of an earnest and aggressive effort to disseminate among the people safe and prudent financial ideas. The situation confronting us demands that those who appreciate the importance of this subject and those who ought to be first to see impending danger should no longer remain indifferent or over confident.

"If the sound money sentiment abroad in to land is to save us from mischief and disaster it must be crystalized and combined and made immediately active. It is dangerous to overlook the fact that a vast number of our people, with scant opportunity, thus far, to examine the question in all its aspects, have nevertheless been ingeniously pressed with specious suggestions which in this time of misfortune and willing listoners, prepared to give credence to any scheme which is plausibly presented as a remedy for their unfortumate condition.

"What is now needed more than anything else is a plain and simple presentation of the argument in favor of sound money. In other words, it is time for the American people to reason together as members of a great nation which can promise them a continuance of protection and safity only so long as its solvency is unsuspected, its honor unsullied and the soundness of its money unquestioned. These things are ill exchanged for the il-Instons of a d-based currency and groundless hope of advantages to be gained by a disregard of our financial credit and commercial standing among the nations of the

"If our people were isolated from all others, and if the question of our currency could be treated without regard to our relations to other countries, its character would be a matter of comparatively little Importance. If the American people were only concerned in the maintenance of their physical life among themselves they might return to the old days of barter, and in this primitive manner acquire from each other the materials to supply the wants of their existence. But if American civilization burglar, is in custody.

was satisfied with this it would abjectly fail in its high and noble mission.

"In these restless days the farmer is our currency may be debased, redundant and uncertain, such a situation will improve the price of his products. Let us remind him that he he must buy as well as sell; that his dreams of plenty are shaded by the certainty that if the prices of the things he has to buy sell are nominally enhanced, the cost of the things he must buy will not remain stationary; that the better prices which cheap money proclaims are unsubstantial and clusive, and that even if they were real and palpable he must necessarily be left far behind in the race for their enjoyment.

"It ought not be difficult to convince the wage carner that if there were benefits arising from a degenerated currency they would reach him least of all, and last of all. In an unhealthy stimulation of prices an increased cost of all the needs of his home must long be his portion, while he is at the same time vexed with vanishing visions of increased wages and an easier lot.

"An insidious attempt is made to create a prejudice against the advocates of a safe and sound currency by the insinuation, more or less directly made, that they belong to financial and business classes, and are therefore not only out of sympathy with the common people of the land, but for selfish purposes are willing to sacrifice the interest of those outside their circle. "I believe that capital and wealth, through combination and other means, sometimes gain an undue advantage, and it must be conceiled that the maintenance of a sound currency may, in a sense, be invested with a greater or less importance to individuals according to their condition and circumstances. It is, however, only a difference in degree, since it is utterly impossible that any one in our broad land, rich or poor, whatever may be his occupation and whether dwelling in a center of finance and commerce, or in a remote corner of our dom un, can be really benefitted by a financial scheme, not alike beneficial to all

"If reckless discontent and wild experi ment should sweep our currency from its safe support, the most defenseless of all who suffer in that time of distress and national discredit will be the poor, as they reckon the loss in their scanty support, and the laborer or workingman, as he sees the money he has received for his tod shrink and shrivel in his hand when he tenders it for the necessaries to supply his humble home.

"Disguise it as we may, the line of battle is drawn between the forces of safe curreney and those of silver monometallism. I will not believe that, if our people are afforded an intelligent opportunity for sober second thought, they will sanction schemes that mean disaster and confusion. Yours truly, GROVER CLEVELAND."

A Mysterious Prisoner.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15. - The police have at headquarters a mysterious prisoner. Information concerning his identity or the charge against him is refused. It is generally supposed, however, that the arrest is in connection with the murder of Johanna Logue, for which crime her husband, "Jimmy" Logue, the notorious PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

The House Has Decided to Again Hold Night Sessions.

HARRISBURG, April 15.—The legislators have not yet agreed upon the date of final adjournment. Many have grown weary of their duties and are anxious to get away A resolution will probably be offered in the house this evening fixing May 23 for the close of the session. It is thought a compromise will be made on the following Thursday. The last session closed on June 1. The question of the final adjournment was discus-ed at the conference last Thursday night, at the executive mansion, between the state's fiscal officers and others to consider the state revenues and appropriations for the next two years. No dare was fixed, but it was the unanimous sentiment of the gentlemen that the session should not be extended into June.

Beginning this week the senate will extend its sessions an hour on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, beginning at 10 o'clock instead of 11 as heretofore. The senators have managed to keep up with the house by holding one session a day and getting away every Thursday. The older members of that body say it will not be necessary to hold more than one session a day until near the close of the term. By prolonging the sessions an hour each day the senators expect to clear their calendar of all the bills which originated in that

The house is expected to hold night sessions beginning tomorrow. The senators insist that the house devote more time to senate bills. It has been the rule heretofore with the house to drop about 200 senate bills from the calendar near the close of the session. The senators are tired of this, and demand that at least a month be devoted to their bills, or time enough to dispose of them. The house has set apart this evening for the consideration of senate bills on second reading.

Incendiary Fire in Matanzas, Cuba.

TAMPA, Fla., April 15.—A serious conflagration on Gerbelt and Matanzas, the principal streets of Matanzas, Cuba, on Friday night, destroyed the large ware-house occupied by Beabollido & Co., sugar dealers, and owned by Miret Bros. Loss is estimated at $200.000; insured in North British and Sun Insurance companies. Assistance from Havana was requested. Fifteen persons were injured at the fire, which is attributed to incendiarism. A previous announcement of an intent to fire the town Sunday night now appears well founded. The arrival of Maximo Gomez on the island is reported, and a further uprising in Puerto Principe. Manuel Sanguilly, brother of the imprisoned Sanguilly, arrived on the steamer Mascotte last ni rht.

Tried to Hide Evidence of Murder.

New York, April 15.—Engineer Warren Hines' engine, which left Perth Amboy station, on the Lehigh Valley railroad, for South Plainfield, struck the body of a man lying across both rails a short distance west of Weber station and dragged it 150 feet. A careful examination by detectives led to the belief that the man had been murdered and his body placed across the rails. Later in the day the dead man was identified as John Smith. 24 years old, a leather finisher of Newark. The police arrested two men who had been seen with Smith, one of whom, who gave his name as Edward T. Bourke, was badly bruised about the face. The other was Daniel Cobb.

Arrested on a Charge of Arson. OXFORD, Pa., April 15.-Samuel W. Pierson, of East Nottingham, was taken to prison, charged with arson. On the night of April 6 his barn and farmhouse, east of Oxford, were destroyed by fire. Pierson was alone at the time, his family being in various parts of the country. There was an insurance of $3,150 on the property. An investigation by the insurance company developed the fact that he had removed the most valuable goods and had hidden them in caves. Pierson is a native of Delaware, and at one time was wealthy. He is 65 years of age.

Murderous Robbers Sentenced for Life. Boston, April 15.—The jury in the cases of Walter Scott and Robert A. West, charged with the murder of James P. Slamin, a Back Bay coachman, on Dec. 5, found both guilty of murder in the second degree Slam 1 and another coachman had given chase to the menafter they had held up and robbed a young lady of her hand bag. The tragedy occurred on Commonwealth avenue about 9 o'clock in the evening. The men were sentenced to day to imprisonment for life.

A Noted Hostelry Destroyed.

Los Angeness, Cal., April 15.—The Hotel Raymond, at Pasadena, ten miles from here, was destroyed by fire at 4:30 yesterday afternoon. Not a stick of the famous resort was left. In less than an hour the huge wooden structure was leveled to the ground. There were about 450 guests in the hotel. Some of the guests saved a few personal effects, though most of them lost everything. The cost of the building was almost $500,000, and the furniture cost Ghastly Murder of Two Young Ladies in a Church.

THE ALLEGED MURDERER CAUGHT.

He Is a Medical student, and Is Believed to Have a Mania for Murder-He Was Also a Sunday School Official, and Highly Respected.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.-The Emannel Baptist church, at Bartlett street be tween Twenty-second and Twenty-third, In this city, has been the scene of two of the most atrocious murders ever committed in the state. On Seturday the mutilated and murdered body of Minnie Williams was found in the library of the edifice. Yesterday the nude body of Blanche Lamont was found in the tower of the same church. The same hand, the authorities believe, slew both girls, and W. H. T. Durant, the young man suspected of both crimes, is now in custody.

Blanche Lumont and Minnie Williams were members of the Emanuel Church and members of the Sunday school class. The former was a student at the normal school, on Powell street, in this city; the latter was a companion in a family in Alabama, scross the bay from the city. They both were 21 years old, brunettes, and pretty and needest garls. Both had been the retiplents of attentions from a young medital student named W. H. T. Durant, who Is also the librarian of the church and the secretary of the young people's society of the church.

On April 3 Miss Lamont disappeared. Dilligent search failed to reveal any trace of her whereabouts, and her aunt. Mrs. Noble, with whom she had been living. was totally unable to throw any light on the affair. Miss Lamout came from Dilion. Mon., several months ago, having been in Fan Francisco for her health and at the same time to attend the normal school, to perfect herself as a teacher. The last person seen in her company was young Durant.

On Saturday the mutilated body of Minnie Williams was found in the library of the church. The girl had been assaulted, and her remains were cut and hacked, the girl having evidently died from loss of blood. On further examination it was found that she had been gagged, the as-sailant tearing part of her underclothing and thrusting it down her throat with a sharp stick, budly lacerating the tongue. Two witnesses state they saw a young man and a young woman, the former answering the description of Durant, and the latter Minnie Williams, enter the thurch. Following this clew, the police at once put the residence of Durant under surveilance.

Miss Williams lived with friends in Alameda named Morgan, who gave her a home until she could secure a position. She had been a regular attendant of the Emanuel church, having formerly lived in that neighborhood, but the separation of her father and mother had caused her to move to Alameda. Friday morning the Morgan family packed their household goods, intending to leave for Tacoma, and Miss Williams had removed her possessions to the house of Mrs. Voy, near the church.

Friday evening she was to have attended a meeting of the young people's society of the Emanuel church at Dr. Vogel's bouse. At 7:15 o'clock she left Mrs. Voy's house to attend the meeting, taking latch key with her. She never appeared there. About this time Durant left his home on Fair Oaks street in the same vicinity, bound for the same meeting. At 8 o'clock Durant met Philip Perkins and asked him some questions about a trip to Mount Diablo, which the signal corps, of which he was a member, was to make next day. At 9:30 he appeared at Dr. Vogel's residence, where the meeting was in progress, and none were merrier during the remainder of the evening than he. At il o'clock he left with a party of voung people and went home. The next morning Durant arose early and went with his comrades of the signal corps for Mount Diablo, fifty miles away.

On Sunday Mrs. Noble, the aunt of Miss Lamont, received through the mails a paper containing the four rings worn by her niece the day she disappeared. On the paper were written the name and address of Theodore Durant. This, together with the fact that Miss Williams, an intimate friend of Miss Lamont, had been heard to say that she knew Blanche had been murdered, but had refused to tell what she knew, led the police to suspect that the same one who had killed Miss Williams had slain Miss Lamont, and that, learning that Miss Williams knew of his crime, attempted further concealment by committing a second murder.

Late Saturday night the detectives had about decided Durant had murdered Miss Williams, and this theory was further strengthened yesterday after making a thorough search of the Emanuel church, The dead and outraged body of Miss Lamont was found concealed in the steeple. Death had been caused by strangulation. The body was tying just inside the door of the lower room, nude and on the floor, Around the neck were blue streaks, the marks of fingers that had been pressed deep into the tender desh. The mouth was open, showing the regular teeth. The features were badly distorted, being drawn, and the lips were swelled and bloodstained. Durant was arrested last evening at Walnut Creek, on the road to Mount Diablo. He was caught by Detective Anthony, who left in pursuit of him early in the morning. The police are certain they

Durant is about 23 years of age, and was born and raised in the neighborhood in to make her tell where her other savings | which the murder occurred. He is a graduate of the Cogswell High school, and has been studying medicine for a year. He was a member of the Second brigade signal corps, and was assistant superintendent of Emanuel Church Sunday school. The police think Durant is another "Jack the Ripper," with a mania for murder. They state that it is highly probable that Durant is responsible for the killing of Eugene Ward, a young drug clerk, who age in the store where he worked No trace was ever found of the assassin and the theory is that Durant killed hun.

Jumped from Brooklyn Bridge to Death.

NEW YORK, April 15 -A man who said that he was Jame- Duffy, from county Cavan. Ireland, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge and was killed. Duffy was about 27 years old, and a heavy drinker. He spent much of his time in Steve Brodie's saloon on the Bowery. He said that he had made some high jumps in England, and could easily make the Brooklyn bridge jump. He struck the water on his back, however, and was probably instantly

BRITISH DEFEAT IN CHITRAL Colonel Battye Eilled While Leading a Masterly Retreat.

SIMLA, April 15.-The guides and infan try belonging to the brigade of General Waterfield, part of the force operating against Umra, khan of Jandol, were detached from the brigade and crossed the Punjk ara river to reconnoiter and to chastise some villagers who had been firing on the British camp The British met a strong force of the enemy and were com pelled to retreat, covered by an artillery fire from the camp. Colonel Battye was killed and several others of the British were wounded. The natives showed great determination, and are still inforce on the Punjkora river.

The natives kept up a dropping fire cu the British while the latter were engaged in constructing : rait bridge over the river. The bridge was hually finished, and Colonel Battye, who was in command of the guides, crossed over safely, with orders to form a camp is the morning and to destroy the native villages. The enemy finding that their fire hal not prevented the completion of the bridge, decided to destroy it. Daring the night they threw immense logs into the river above the bridge. These were caught in the rapid current and carried down with great force upon the frail bridge, soon pounding it to

With the destruction of the bridge Colonel Battye and his party were cut off from the main body of the British force. Colonel Battye, however, proceeded into the hills to punish the natives. Soon he signalled across the river to General Waterfield that two hostile bodies were approaching. General Waterfield signalled back orders for Colonel Battye to retreat. General Waterfield's force covered the retreat with their mountain battery and Maxim guns which were on the bank of the river for this pur pose. Colonel fattyr executed the retreat in a masterly manner.

When hotly pressed by the enemy a halt was made and a withering fire poured into the pursuers, whose confusion would enable the British force to retire a little further. These tactics succeeded until the British reached a wide plain, when, through fear of hitting their own men, General Waterfield's party were obliged to cease firing, leaving Colonel Battye to depend on his own resources. The retreat continued in an orderly manner. Colonel Battyc was killed by a bullet just as the British got within hading distance of General Waterfield's camp. The enemy lost heavily. It is now reported that they have dispers

Sudden Death of a Leading Publisher.

NEW YORK, April 15.-James W. Scott, proprietor of the Chicago Times-Herald and the Chicago Evening Post, died yes terday afternoon at the Holland House, this city. His death was very sudden. He was taken with pains in the left side in the morning, and a doctor was called in. He said the pain arose from a passage of a stone from the bladder, and administered morphine. At 1 o'clock Mr. Scott became unconscious, and the doctor was hastily summoned again. He found that apoplexy had supervened, probably brought on by the pain, and Mr. Scott died without recovering consciousness. Mr. Scott arrived in this city on Friday last from Chicago with his wife, his niece and his adopted daughter, Miss Grace Hatch. He was apparently in good health and spirits, but said to his friends that he had been overworked and intended to visit Old Point Comfort and Virginia Beach to take a complete rest for some weeks.

Risked Her Life for a Horse.

Somerville, N. J., April 15.-Luther Martin, who has a farm near this place, had his barn burned last night and four valuable horses were lost. Fourteen blooded animals were in the stalls when the fire was discovered, and they were all rescued by the men. But after being turned loose they became crazed by fear, and despite the efforts of the men five of them plunged into the flames again Among these horses was a favorite of Mrs. Martin. When she saw it enter the burning building she pushed the crowd aside and rushed through the flames after it. After a flerce straggle, in which sho was severely burned the brave woman succeeded in rescuing the animal Arrested for Working on Sunday. Tollpo, O. April 45 -Twenty six mea who were at work on Water street were arrested yesterday on a charge of violating the ordinance prohibiting manual labor on the Sabbath. These incidents formed the climax to the attempt of the Manufacturers' Railroad company to lay a line on Water street without the permission, it is alleged, of the city engineer. At the police station. Bick and Glann, the contractors, gave bull for the twenty-xx men arrested.

CONVICTS CAPTURED.

Two More Fugitives Returned to the Mattewan Asylum.

PERRY AND DAVIS STILL AT LARGE

The Noted Train Robber is Supplied With Citizen's Clothing-Patrick McGuire and Michael O'Donnell Overtaken at Pine Plains by Keeper Coyle, of the Asylum.

MATTEWAN, N. Y., April 15.—Patrick McGuire and Michael O'Donnell, two of the five convicts who escaped from the Mattewan asylum last Wednesday night, were captured at Pine Plains yesterday by Attendant James Coyle, of the asylum. This leaves only Perry, for whose arrest a reward of $2.25) is offered, and Davis, who is said to be even more desperate and daring than the former, still at liberty.

When Superintendent Allison learned that Perry had broken into a house at Hughsonville on Thursday night and stolen a quantity of wearing apparel he at once dispatched attendants to all points north of here, thinking the train robber, and perhaps also his pols, had gone in that direction. Attendant James Coyle, who, with two other attendants, had been at Danbury, was told to proceed at once to Pine Plains, which is torty miles north-east of this place. Coyle arrived at Pine Plains Saturday night, and scopped at the hotel. Yesterday morning he went to the station and was about to buy a morning paper from a newspay when he chanced to look down the track and saw a man's head protruding from an empty hay car about fifty yards from where he stood. The head disappeared, but not before Coyle recognized the man as O'Donnell.

Going to the open car door he fired a shot from his revolver at random into the car. As he did so another man, whom he recognized as McGuire, jumped out through the opposite doorway. Coyle then leaped into the car and arrested. O'Donnell, who was crouching in a corner, too broken down to offer resistance. Coyle pulled the convict out of the car and took him into the station, leaving him in the custody of two boys, while he started down the railroad track in pursuit of McGuire, who had by this time got quite a start of

Coyle gained on the tired convict for about half a mile, and then fired another shot. As he rounded a curve the fugitive took to the woods, which border the track on both sides. The pistol shot had attracted a crowd of boys, who joined in the chase, and some of them saw McGuire go into the woods and told Coyle. The keeper scoured the woods for illteen minutes before he saw McGuire again. Then the conviet was standing in an open field on the border of the wood in a defiant attitude. Coyle started toward him, firing a third

"If you take me you'll have to take me dead," McGuire yelled defiantly.
"I'll do that," replied Coyle, coming closer to McGuire, who, seeing that cap-ture was inevitable, lay down in the field and said: "Well, you'll have to carry me, Coyie talked to him for a time, and finally persuaded him to go peaceably to the station. Coyle then telegraphed to the asylum that he had caught O'Donnell and McGuire, and Attendants MacDonald and

Lacey went to Pine Plains and aided in bringing the prisoners back to the asylum.

Dr. Allison had McGuire and O'Donnell placed in separate rooms, and he examined each one at great length, after which he repeated to the Associated Press reporter what he had been able to learn from them. It appears that as the asylum is a new institution, and not occupied throughout, a number of patients have been employed. from time to time in finishing the various wards. Some months ago a number of patients were employed in scraping the floor of the south isolation ward, which was then entirely unoccupied.

From McGuire it is learned that the fashioning of the keys which freed the men from their cells was begun at that time by some patient employed on the improvement. When McGuire was transferred to the south isolation ward, together with other patients, he discovered those keys, together with a pair of small flat files, about four inches long. The partially filed keys, which had originally been spoons, were taken possession of by Mc-Guire, who has worked for the past six or eight months, having them tried in the locks from time to time by one of the patients who had the run of the ward.

Some time ago McGuire, who is a jeweler by trade, and who is thoroughly conversant with the manufacture of such articles, broke open the watchman's box which connects with the clock in the main office and secured a true piece of steel two inches long and a quarter on an inch wide. With his file he made teeth in this steel, giving him a fine saw, with which he was enabled to saw out the wire screen over the door when the time for escape came, The keys and tools were secreted behind the sinks when McGuire was not at work

The file and saw were found on Me-Guire when arrested.

Mctiure says that he and O'Donnell have been together ever since they left the asylum. They slid down from the south side of the roof, while Perry and the others left the roof from the opposite side. Mc-Guire saw nothing more of them after that. They have committed no robberies, McGuire says, except to steal one old black coat for himself and a drab ulster for O'Donnell, which they found in a barn beside the railroad track.

The prisoners were in bad condition physically from exposure and hunger, and seemed relieved when they were allowed to throw themselves on the cots in their cells and were given nourishment.

THE INCOME TAX FIGHT. No Possibility of a Rehearing Before Next Fait or Winter.

WASHINGTON, April 15 .- The determination of the appelants in the income tax cases to secure a rehearing before a full bench of the United States suppeme court on the points on which the court divide! dition is fairly good. It is also stated from the same source that he expects to be able to resume his duties as a member of the court at the beginning of the October term. There remains only a little more than a month of the present term, and it is not suggested that he may return for this

In view of this fact there can be no possibility of another argument in the case before next fall or winter. This is equally true if Justice Jackson should decide to retire permanently from the bench, which it is understood he has no thought of doing. In that contingency, however, the bench could not be filled before the assembling of congress. No instance is known when a man nominated for the supreme bench has taken his seat before he was confirmed by the senate. Congress will not convene until next December, and under no circumstances would the senate be likely to pass upon a nomination of this magnitude until after the Christmas holidays. Action might indeed be postponed much longer, and it probably would be if the predilections of the nominee should be opposed to the income tax, as the senate is committed to the law. It is also suggested that a justice who had not participated in the first hearing might feel a delicacy in sitting when the case was under consideration the second time.

It is quite possible that the petition for a rehearing may not be granted. The court's rule of procedure in such cases is only to grant such petitions upon the request of a member of the court who has voted in opposition to the wishes of the petitioner.

Cuban Insurgents Put to Flight. HAVANA, April 15.-A report reaches bere from Palmarito, a villarge in the proviace of Santiago de Cuba, of an engagement between government forces and insurgents near that place. The govern-ment forces were made up of regular infantry and a number of volunteers, while the insurgents were under the command of Brigadier General Flor Crombet, who, it is said, was killed. One colonel, Major Fostier and Tomas Sainsz, secretary of Major General Maceo, were taken prisoners by the government forces. One lieutenant was wounded. Jorge Estrada sur-rendered all the men belonging to General Maceo's expedition. Troops are in pursuit of the rest of the party.

A Murderous Echemian.

CLEVELAND, April 15 .- At 4 o'clock yesterday morning John Sejhar, a Bohemian laborer, aged 28 years, shot and instantly killed Carl Richter, aged 35, and fatally wounded Albert Richter, aged 22, brother of his first victim. Two hours later the murderer was found dead in a cell at the Central police station, where he had been taken. He had hanged himself with his suspender. The three men had been drinking all night, and nothing can be learned as to the cause of the shooting. The police claim to have discovered evidence that Sejhar was jealous of the attentions which Carl Richter had paid to his wife.

Strengthening the Amalgamate CLEVELAND, April 15 .- Ætna Lodge, No. 14. of the National Union of Iron and Steel Workers, surrembred its charter and at once reorganized as a lodge of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. This step is considered important by iron workers, as it marks the beginning of the dissolution of the finishers' union, which was an offshoot of the Amalgamated Association, and its organization greatly weakened that great association.

Johnson and Sanger to Race. NEW YORK, April 15 .- An agreement was signed yesterday for a series of races between the two crack wheelmen, Johnson and Sanger, that will settle between them the question of the championship. The final arrangements, such as fixing the date and place of meeting, will be made later. There will be three races, of one mile each. One of the races shall take place east, one west, and one to be mutually agreed upon.

A Noted Scientist Probably Drowned. ALTON, Ills., April 15 .- Hon. William McAdams, noted as a professor of archæology, is probably drowned. Saturday night he started up the river in a sailboat, and later his boat and dog were found seven miles up the river. Relatives believe he was stricken with apoplexy and fell overboard. He was the author of many geological works, and had charge of the state exhibition at the World's fair.

Fatal Stabbing Affray at Malthy, Pa. WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 15.-In a drunken brawl among Hungarians in the village of Maltby Saturday night Mrs. Anna Tonish, a boarding house keeper, was fatally stabbed, and her husband, Alexander Tonish, received nine knife wounds in the body. The murderous work done was by George Line, who was armed with a butcher knife. Line fled but was captured by the police in a field yesterday. Had it not been for the interference of a number of citizens of Maltby he would have been lynched by his countrymen. The prisoner was lodged in jail.

Charged with a Most Brutal Crime. Bosrov, April 15.—The body of Alice Sterling, the S-year-old daughter of George Sterling, an employing barber at Dorchester, was found buried in the cellar of a barn. Serious Political Quarret in Bultimore. BALTIMORE, April 15 .- A political quarrel of loaz scarding between Thomas Welch and William Lawrence resulted yesterday in the shooting of three men. The victims are: Charles Foss, shot through left log; Edward Lawrence, left groin; William Lawrence, right arm. Edward Lawrence, who is a brother of William, was wounded while attempting to prevent the tragedy. At the hospital he refused to allow the physicians to probe for the ball. He became unmanageable and assaulted Dr. Briscoe, dealing him a severe blow in the face. He then escaped. Dr. Council and Dr. Blake extricated the bullets from William Lawrence and Foss.

Murder and Suicide.

NEW YORK, April 15 .- Charles Janda. 26 years old, a Bohemian tailor, shot and instantly killed his sister-in-law, Mrs. Camilla Janda, yesterday, at her home, and then fatally injured himself by put-ting a bullet into his right temple. So far as could be learned there was no possible provocation for the murder of the woman and it was probably caused by spite which the murderer felt for his brother, the husband of the woman he shot, there having been ill feeling between them.

The Last Body Recovered.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 15 .- At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the men at work in the ruins of the Main street build ing, which fell last Tuesday, came upon the body of M. T. Remarkable Eyes.

Emma Byers, a remarkable freak of nature known as "the girl with a doll baby in her eye" was born at Fairmount, near Cincinnati, in February, 1882. The writer last saw her in May, 1888, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Byers, lived at Budd and Harrict streets, Cincinnati. The eyes of the child, Emma, so far as is known to the contrary, are, or were, the most remarkable organs of vision which nature ever set in the head of a human being. In her left optic was the form of a perfect doll baby, handsomely dressed, and with features positively beautiful.

This wonderful freak was not a discoloration of the iris, or anything of that nature, but was to be seen in the form of the pupil itself. The pupil of the right eye was also of the freakish order, being in the exact shape of a crescent-resembling pictures of the moon at about the time of its first quarter. The image was not small or indistinct, but could be plainly observed at a distance of 8 or 10 feet. When she was first born her parents believed the child to be blind, but subsequent events proved her to be a child with remarkable range and clearness of vision.—St. Louis Republic.

A RAILROAD REORGANIZED

THE P. J. M. AND N. Y. RAILROAD OUT OF A RECEIVER'S HANDS.

Ex-Congressman Haines in Control of the Property and at the Head of the New Company-Plans for Betterments -Troubles of the Old Company-The Plau of Reorganization-The Bonded Debt Scaled Down,

On Saturday last, Benjamin_Ryall, Receiver of the Port Jervis, Monticello and New York Railroad, turned over the property to a new management, controlled by ex-Congressman Charles D. Haines, of Kinderhook, who several months ago purchased a majority of the stock of the company. An order discharging Mr. Ryall as Receiver was signed by Judge Brown, April 6 b, and it went into effect Saturday.

The new officers of the company, who were elected a month or more ago, are:

President—Charles D. Haines. Vice-President—Late Pence, late Populist Congressmen from the Denver distric^r.

Treasurer-Andrew G. Haines, of Kinderhook. Secretary-W. E. Scott, Cashier of National Bank of Port Jervis.

Treasurer Haines has rented rooms in Port Jervis and will make his home in that village and devote his time to the affairs of the road.

Mr. Ryall retires as General Manager and George M. Wells as Auditor. They are succeeded by Stephen G. Lake, of Hudson, who is made General Superintendent and who has already entered on his duties.

Mr. Ryall has been with the road for nearly eix years, as General Manager, and for the latter part of the time was President of the company. Since Nov. 10.h, 1893, ne was Receiver of the road. He has proved himself a first class railroad man and his retirement from the service of the road is generally regretted in Port Jervis and along the line.

President Haines was in Port Jervis, Saturday, and says that he will at once commence relaying the Morticello division with steel rails and will put the road in good physical condition. He proposes to improve the equipment so as to provide for rapid, frequent and cheup transit between Port Jervis and Monticello.

Mr. Haines is reticent concerning pussible extensions of the system. FINANCIAL TRUTBLES OF THE OLD COM-PANY.

Fir some two years previous to Mr. Ryall's appointment as receiver, various plans had been proposed for re-organization, some of which contemplated the extension of the road southerly through Pennsylvania to the coal fields, and northerly to the Hudson River, at Kingston. Nothing, however, was accomplished, there being so many diverse opinions and interests that it was impossible to harmonize them.

After Mr. Ryall was made receiver the directors, bondholders and creditors came together many times for consultation and mutual advisement, but no satisfactory plan or scheme of adjustment of the read's embarrasements was hit upon, and it was almost concluded that nothing could be done to avert foreclosure of the mortgage.

As a final effort, a meeting of those representing the various interests in the road was called, last May, which resulted in the appointment of the following named gentlemen as a re-William B. Royce, Esq., of this city; William E. Scott, Cashler of the National Bank of Port Jervis, C. E. Ryall, receiver of the road, the last three being residents of Port Jervis.

The committee immediately organized with Mr. Cuddeback as Chair-Mr. Scott as Treasurer.

It was found that the bonded debt, unpaid interest on same, and the floating debt aggregated something in excess of $615 000.

It was then ascertained from a careful examination of the earnings of the road for a number ber of years past, that it could earn its operating expenses, pay for necessary improvements, and also pay interest, on a bonded indebtedness of $225,000 at 41/4 per cent.

The problem that now met the committee was what to do with the $390,-000 excess of debt.

A PLAN OF REORGANIZATION.

A plan of 18-organization was formulated which, while it called for most heroic sacrifice by all parties in interest, was deemed by the committee none to drastic in view of the end sought to be attained, the placing of the property on a footing of permanent solvency. It classified the several classes of indebtedness and provided for the payment of a small percentage of it in full another and larger percentage at the rate of fifty per cent. and the absolute surrander and cancellation of the

After a vast amount of labor had been gone through with, in which the organizers were most zealously and ably assisted by Mr. C. F. Van Inwegen, cashier of the First National Bank of Port Jervis, Hon, O. P. Howell, late treasurer of the road, Hon. W. H. Crane and William H. Parshall. Esq., all of Port Jervis, the signatures of all interested parties were obtained to the agreement and.

tually completed its work by deliver-Paine's ing to the Central Trust Company of New York city, the trustee, $500 .-000 of bonds provided for by the old mortgage with coupons attached. and by seeing the same burned in the cremating furnace in the vaults under that company's offices, No. 54 Compound

Of the $500,000 bonds, old mortgage, $410,000 had been actually issued. Upon the destruction of the old bonds and coupons, the Trust Company delivered to the committee on re-organization a satisfaction of the old mertgage and also $225,000 of bonds provided for under the new mortgage, the Central Trust Company having been again made trus-

Under the terms of re-organization the re-organization committee is constituted a voting trust in behalf of the road's stockholders, and will, jointly with the bondholders, controi the management of the property for the ensuing five years. Of the directors, numbering thirteen, the trust will name six and the beacholders seven.

FUTURE OF THE PROPERTY. The future of the Port Jervis Monticello and New York Raliroad Company is looked forward to with great confidence by the new proprietors. On the basis of the ascertained earnings bondholders are secure of their interest, and it is more than reasonably certain that with ample expenditures for repairs and betterments, there will be a considerable surplus of earnings annually.

The committee on re-organization is entitled to the thanks of all the parties in interest for their arduous and successful labors; and in this consection it is to be said that had it not been for the more than generous pecuniary sacrifices made in behalf of the rehabilitation of the property by those largely interested in it, which in especial applies to several residents of Port Jervis, the committee could never have brought their labora to such successful issue.

Our fellow townsman, W. B. Royce, Esq., has been a conspicious figure in the work done by the committee on re-organization. He represented a very large interest in the road, and he has rendered that interest great and lasting service. His tireless energy, pluck and determination was never more valuably bestowed.

A gratifying attendant result of the rehabilitation of the Port Jervis and Monticello Railroad Com any is that it releases from financial embarrasements and threatening financial complications a number of the public spirited citizens of our everthe mountain neighbor.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the consutution and assisting nature to do its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address.

MONDAY, APRIL 15, 1895.

In the neighborhood of 2,300 bills have been introduced in the Assembly, and though many of them will be buried in committee, a great many more will be passed than the good of the State requires. It is probable that in this mass of legislation, much of which has been rushed through with unseemly haste, many big jobs are hidden, and certain it is that in the defective and crudely ex pressed measures that have been passed are possibilities for disputes as to meaning and purport that will fatten many lawyers.

There is great activity in the market for domestic wool, 6,030,676 pounds having changed hands last week, while in the five preceding weeks the sales aggregated 25,621,200 against 25,277,676 in the same weeks in 1892. These figures are furnished by Dun's Review, consequently there is no gainsaying them. Commenting on them, Dun's says: "The proportion of mills at work is larger than usual." That is, larger than in 1892, when McKinleyism "ruled the roost." Again the publication says: "The low price encourages manufacturers to compete much more vigorously with foreign goods of many kinds than they had expected." These facts are eloquent of the blessings free wool is bringing manufacturers and consumers. Let the good work go on!

LIVES IMPERILLED BY FIRE

Last Night's Biaze in B. B. Williams's Liquor Store-Occupants of the Floors Above Taken Out on the Roof-A Woman Almost Evercome by smoke -- Unch Bamage Done to the Stock in the Store-Good Work by Firemen. Shortly after 2.30 o'clock, this morning. Mrs. Tuthill. wife of Robt C Tuthill, the James street diuggier, was awakened by the sound of cracking and falling glass. Ru hing to the front window of her apartments over the drug store she saw the street lighted up by flames, which were issuing from the wholesale and retail liquor store of Mr. B. B. Wilhams, two doors south. She awoke her husband, who reiled "fire!" at the top of his voice. The bakers employed in Iseman's bakery heard the racket and ran to box 26 at the corner of James and Harry streets and sent in an alaım. Meanwhile Capt Totten, who resides in No. 25, had been awakened by the smoke and noise and ran to the Eagles' house in King street and aroused the firemen. In a very short time the neighbors were awakened and all efforts were turned toward the rescue of the families; who occupied the apartments in the upper floors of the burning building. Chas. E. Sharpe, who lives at No. 31 James street, ran over the roofs of the intervening ho ses and entered No. 23 by the scuttle in the roof. He succeeded in arousing all the people in the house and as the smoke was very dense on the lower floor he took them all to the roof and thence to his apartments, where they were sheltered until all danger was over.

Mrs. Sarah Bidwell and her family of five children occupy apartments on the third floor. All of the children were taken safely from the building and Mrs. Bidwell returned to get some of her household effects. She was gone a long time and Mr. Sharp made a search for her through the smoky apartments and had almost given ner up for lost, when he stumbled across Assistant Chief Higham, who informed him that he had just carried her to the street in a semi-Inconscious condition.

The other families occupying the third floor are those of Frank Howard, Peter Oliverio and Cornelius D. Wood. The second floor is occupied by the families of Angus Camerou, Hector J. Heckett. Mrs. E'eanor Peck and Miss Julia C Mapes.

While the rescuing party was at work, Eagles had laid two lines of nose and were pouring water into the store and in a snort time had the flames under control. The interior of the store was completely ruined and the large stock of bottled wines and liquors and of cigars was almost totaliy destroyed.

Mr. Williams is at present unable to estimate his lose but he thinks that it will reach considerably more farm of his mother, and will remain | 18 $7,590 or $8,000, distributed than the amount of insurance, which among the various agents in this

> It is thought that the stock of whickies, brandies and wines in barrels is uninjured, but this cannot as yet be ascertained.

The origin of the fire is a mystery, but it is thought by some to have been caused by an electric wire. Mr Anthony, the electric light company's superintendent says, however, that the fire could not possibly have started from the wires since the meter is one of the best livery stables in the practically intact and the fuses are county. that the fire when discovered was far below the meter.

The loss on the building, which is owned by the W. T. Hulse estate, is covered by insurance. The grocery stock of C. N. Predmore & Son, adjoining, was slightly damaged by smoke and water.

Suggestions Which Bear Repeating, as Their Importance is Immeasurable.

[SIFUAL TO OUR LABY READERS]

Only a few years ago even the medical profession scouted the idea that young guis could suffer from the misery of merus That form of disease, it was claimed,

When Lydia E. Pinkham first sent out the news of her great discovery, there was no lack of larsh speech from those whose practice and opinions she set at denance.

But when young girls by the hundreds were absolutely cured by Ludia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, then the tongues of the traducers were stilled, and faith was allowed to live in the hearts of the people.

Young girls are subject to this trouble. It robs them of the buoyancy of youth. It makes all effort distasteful. It causes retention and suppression of menses, leucorrhoza, severe headache, waxy complexion, depression, weakness, loss of appetite and interest. Certainly mothers ought to know that these are all symptoms of the one cause of nearly all the suffering that comes to women; and to save their daughters ought to begin treatment at once. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the surest and most natural remedy for women ever compounded. It

EASTER IN MIDDLETOWN.

Interesting Services at All the Churches -st. Paul's New Pastor-Beautiful Pioral Decorations at Ali the Churches

Easter Sunday was observed in all the churches in this city, yesterday, and the attendance was large at each of them. The floral decorations were not so elaborate as they have been on some former occasions, but were nevertheless very beautiful .In most of the churches Easter lilies took the place of prominence, and these with callar, palms and other flowers and plants, adorned the platforms and pulpits at the First Baptist, First and North Street Congregational, First and Second Presbyterian, St. Paul's, Grace and St. Joseph's churches.

ET. PAULS M. E. CHURCH,

St. Pauls M. E. Church was crowded to the doors yesterday and chairs were placed in the aisles to accommodate many who could not find seats in the pews. The great crowd was drawn to the church by the announcement that the new pastor, Rev. Dr. F. L. Wilson would preach.

There is a general desire and belief that the new minister will heal the troubles in St. Pauls and unite the congregation again and members of the church and many others who are anxious that suon a result should be obtained wished to see and hear Dr.

The congregation very unexpectedy had also the pleasure of seeing the new presiding elder, Rev. Andrew Schriver, who doubtless made his visit to this church first of all in his district to do what he could towards bringing about an era of good fee!ing as the new pastor enters upon his work. Dr. Darwood was also present and occupied the chair on the left of Dr. Wilson in the pulpit, Presiding Elder Schriver sitting on Dr. Wilson's

The opening prayer was made by the Presiding Elder, who prayed fervently for unity and brotherly love in the church; for the new pastor who was about to enter upon his work and for Dr. Darwood who he said was about to go where he was known and appreciated.

The scripture lesson was read by Dr. Darwood, who stated that the gentleman who had just prayed was the new presiding elder. He then said that if he had been permitted to name his successor there was none among the 260 ministers in the conference whom he would have chosen before the one who had been appointed, and therefore he said while it was "a mournful pleasure it was none the less a pleasure" to introduce Rev. Dr. Wilson to the congre-

The new pastor then spoke briefly in reference to his appointment. He said he did not know any one in Middietown except the gentleman who very tastefully arranged. In the had entertained him since his arrival morning, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Nordietown except the gentleman who in Middletown (Judge Groo) He ris, preached an appropriate Easter -There were twenty-four lodgers came in the name of the church and sermon from the text, "Why seek ye His Master to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and would do what he believed to be right. He asked that the prayers of the people go with Dr.

Dr. Wilson apologized for not preaching a sermon appropriate to Easter, as, owing to the demands upon his time at the conference he had been unable to make necessary preparation.

He chose as his text, Matthew xiii-33: "Another parable spake he unto them; the kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till the whole was leavened."

He compared the leaven mentioned in the text to the word of God, hidden in the hearts of men, working silently, but thoroughly. Its results are seen in the daily life of the Christian; through his example, more than | years ago resided at the handsome in what he may say, is his influence felt by those with whom he is brought in daily contact.

Dr. Wilson is a gentleman of fine personal appearance. He is tall, with a well proportioned body, and an intellectual head. His manner is dignified and earnest. He has a strong voice with pleasing tone and speaks with apparent ease, but very deliberately and distinctly, his every word being easily heard in all parts of the large auditorium. He was listened to with the closest attention throughout his discourse and very evidently made a favorable impression upon the audience.

Presiding Elder Schriver preached, lastevening. He is an able man and to all appearance one who is endowed with much good, sound sense, of the practical kind, that will stand him in good stead in the discharge of the duties of his official position. His sermon was full of the wisest of counsel at this time—the exercise of christian charity and brotherly love.

GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

At Grace Church the altar was covered with cut flowers and potted plants filled both sides of the chancel. The attendance was very large and all the services were of a very interesting character. The music was exceptionally fine. The Easter collections amounted to over $460.

At the children's services in the afternoon prizes were awarded to Harriet Bryant, Agnes Macardell, Mary Ackerman, Theodora Vanamee, Maggie Mandeville, Hattie Towner. ST. JOSEPHS CATHOLIC CHURCH.

At St. Josephs Catholic Church the altar was beautifully decorated with flowers of various kinds. The attendance was large at all the services and the Easter offerings were more than unusually liberal, over $800 being received during the

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

At the First Presbyterian Church the decorations were by Firnhaber, and consisted of a pyramid at either side of the pulpit, composed of Easter lilies and other flowers. The front of the choir loft was covered with festcons of smilax, with cut flowers nterwoven so skillfully as to appear as if growing upon the vines.

The pastor, Rev. Dr. Gordon, preached appropriate sermons morning and afternoon, and at both services special Easter music was rendered by the choir.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN OHURCH.

At this church the flowers were arranged about the platform, and consisted chiefly of lilies and palms. The pastor, Rev. Charles Beattie.

D. D. preached appropriate sermons both morning and evening. At the morning service Mr. Brewster Beattie sang a solo, which pleased the congregation very much. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. H. L. OBITUARY.

Jacob H. shorter.

Jacob M. Shorter died, yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, at the home of his nephew, Samuel D. Shorter, near Bloomingburgh, in his ninety-sixth year. He retained his mental and physical powers to a most remarkable degree and until his last illness, which was of only two weeks' duration, shaved himself and read the daily newspapers without glasses.

Mr. Shorter married Mrs. Mary Hill over half a century ago, and until her death some twenty-five residence she built, which is now known as Hollyrood, Since her death he resided at Old Hopewell until two years ago when he removed to his nephew's, at whose home he diad.

Mr. Shorter was a consistent mem. br of the Bullville Methodist Church. His wife built the handsome church edifice at her own expense and gave it to the congregation, and Mr. Shorter supplemented | laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the her generous gift by that of a neat brick parsonage.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN COSHEN.

Easter Services in the Churches-School Reopened-Four Easter Weddings-Piremen's Dances-The Forgery Cases.

From Our Regular Correspondent. -Easter Sunday was appropriately observed at Goshen. Many from out of town spent the day pleasantly with relatives and friends here and a goodly number of Goshenites went to other places to enjoy the day. The Erie's cheap excursion took quite a number to New York. At the churches the programmes previously announced were carried out and the services at each church were attended by large congrecations both morning and evening. All the churches were handsomely decorated with many palms and potted flowering plants. Rev. R. B. Clark was assisted at the Presbyterian Church by Rev. Floyd Orane. The music by the choir was of a high order and very pleasing. Rev. Wm. E Maison was assisted by his brother, P. E. Maison, a lay reader, of Rutherford, N. J., and Rev. Phineas Duryes, of Goshen. Three services were held in the morning, one in the afternoon and another in the evening. Rev. P. E. McCory conducted the services at St John's Church, consisting of two masses and vespers The congregation at each service was large and the singing excellently rendered. Rev. S. F. White preached his first sermon of this conference year at the M. E. Church, at 11 o'clock a. m. The evening service at this church consisted of singing, recitations. etc., by members of the Sunday school and remarks by the pastor and others. Every seat in the church was filled with interested listeners. -After a week's vacation, the public school opened again, this morn-

-Four weddings will take place in Goshen this week. St. James's Church will be the scene of two of them, to-morrow-the Murray-Crummy nuptials, at 1:30 and the Burt-Sanford wedding, at 7:30 p. m. The other two will be announced later.

-The members of Cataract Engine and Hose Co., and of Dikeman Hose Ca. are busy, to-day, preparing for their receptions, to take place, to--The first hand organ of the sea. son is in town, to-day.

-Mies Mary Champion and Miss Carrie Kniffin are home from school for a few days.

-Frank Howell, who was arrested. Saturday, on the charge of forgery, was given a hearing before Justice C. W. Coleman, at 11 o'clock, this morning. When Howell was brought into court another charge was made against him, that of forging another check for $12, on the Orange County Bank, to which the hame of J. F. Conners was signed. Howell offered it to Henry Seeley, the grocer, who cashed it, on Friday. Howell waived examination and he was held in $500 bail on each count to await the action of the Grand Jury.

CAREER OF WARREN.

FATHER OF JUSIE MANSFIELD A PIO-NECR IN CALIFORNIA.

How He Ellled a Rival Editor In Stockton Got Into Jail I or Life and Was Pardoned. A Steumboat Adventure With $1,000,000 as the Central Figure.

Josie Mansfield, whose gay career in Got tam a generation ago is well remembered, had a father whose career was also remarkable—a mixture of the beroic and tragic. Said a California fortyniner the other day in a reminiscent mood: "Mansfield Warren came from New Orleans to San Francisco in the early fifties. He came after gold, like the rest of us, but, as he was a small, sickly, consumptive looking fellow, he did not pan out well as a digger in the mines. So he went to editing a weekly newspaper at Stockton. No sooner had he started up than the other editor went for him—in his paper.

'ln those days personal journalism was the thing, and in California the editors spoke right out, calling each other all kinds of names not used in society. Warren replied, but in a gentlemanly way. While this newspaper war was going on one of the merchants attacked Warren for some alleged slight, and Warren being small and physically weak got the worst of the one sided right. He was so bodly used up that he stated, as soon as Le got out of bed, that he would kill the next man who attacked him. Accordingly, he purchased a long bowie knits. It so happened that the contor of the rival sheet again abused him, and I fore Warren's paper came out newus attacked on the streetby his opponent. He knocked Wari a down, jumped on tim and was beating him unmercifully. Worten succeeded in unsheating his bowie kniie, when he stalled the aggressor to the heart

"On the trial it was proved that War ren had threatened to kill the next man whom he might fight; also that he had bought the bowie knile immediately after making the threat. The defense argued that Warren did not have the rival editor in mund as these times, and furthermore that he acted in self de-Need Washing or Polishing? fense, which was the truth. However, he was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged. The governor commuted the sentence to life imprisonment, and in a year or two Warren was pardoned.

"The family removed to San Francis co, and here Josie began to assist in the elevation of the stage.

"As soon as she became prosperous she left the family in their old age and poverty and flitted eastward to become notorious as the cause of the murder of Jim Fisk.

"I lost track of Warren until 1869 I met him in New Orleans. He showed me the first issue of The True Jeffersonian, a redhot Democratic paper that he had just started at Carrollton, a suburb of New Orleans. He spoke very little of California and Californians, and what he did say was rather uncomplimentary, and I do not censure him for it. He died a few years afterward about the time of the tragedy of which his wayward daughter was the central figare. He visited his danghter in New York during the height of her career and was very coldly received, I am told. At any rate, he lived poor and died as poor as he had lived. "I may mention an instance in hicareer which will show that he was not a coward. It was the custom of the miners to ship their gold dust by steamer from Sacramento to San Francisco. About $1,000,000 was made in one shipment, guarded by Warren and a half dozen assistants. About 50 roughs em barked on the steamer under the guise of cattlemen and ranchmen en route to Frisco on business. The treasure room was amidships on the lower deck. The steamers in those days carried a small cannon at the bow, which was dis charged on landing, so as to notify the settlers. It also trightened the savage Indians, who soon came to regard the 'floating houses' with fer and supersti-tion. Warren suspected, move on the part of the roughs and fixed the gun on a pivot, so that it would command the stern of the boat and the approach to the treasure room. He heavily loaded the gun and then threw in a handful of nails for scattering shot. The attack, he was informed, was to be made at sun down, just as the boat was rounding the Pirate's cove, about 30 miles above San Francisco. Warren and his men assembled in the bow and soon noticed a number of men forming on the stern of the boat and others joining them from the cabin above by coming down the back stairway. The cannon was immediately reversed, and Warren and his men drew their revolvers. 'Go up stairs, or 141 turn her loose and mow you down like wheat? shouted Warren as he stoor ready to 'let 'er go "The roughs, seeing that they were outflanked, recorded in disorder, and some ran up stairs. Just at that me ment the best ran on a sand bar and was keeled over, nearly upsetting her. The roughs were panic stricken, donot less thinking this was part of the prgramme, and some of them jummed overboard. The cannon also went over board. In a few hours, fortunately, an other boat came along and hankduse. the bar, and we arrived safely at San Francisco with our $1,000,000 in gold dust. No, these who jumped overboard did not get back. We would not let any body board us at that stage of the proocedings, especially as we knew who they were. They may have swum ashere, though," concluded the forry-nincr in a rather doubting tone as to the ultimate safety of the roughs. - Philadelphia Times.

THE CHILDREN GET THE GRAVY.

But the Father of the Family Gets the Fun or Giving It to Them. "You know," said the father of a family, ' it parkes me laugh whenever I think of the conferen's absolute nerve about the gravy. What I mean is that when we have a steak, or reast beef, or roything that has gravy with it, the children take it all, down to the last drop, without leaving a speck for their father an conother. And they're perfectly sound hearted, wholesome children, too, who would do anything they could for their parents. But about some things they haved a self-thress that appears to be perfectly natural to children, and that I suppose is bred in indulgence. They have all their lives been accustomed to having everything that their parents could give them, and so they come to expect it.

"But I smile again as I recall the fact that when I was a boy I got all the gravy. Time and again I have seen my father tip the dish so that he might get for me the last drop, while he had none for himself. He was very foud of gravy, too, but he never said so. With grave courtesy he gave it all to me, as though I were entitled to it. When I grew a little older, I reproached myself sometimes for having taken it all. When I grew older still and came to know how gentle and affectionate and forbcaring and generous he was, I came to know that he wouldn't for the world have marred my pleasure by so much as a word-that the simple fact was that it was a far greater pleasure to him to give me the gravy than it would have been to eat it humself.

"And now when the children pass their plates I gravely dishout the gravy down to the lest drop, and I say nothing for fear that they will ion the of the selfish pleasure or giving it all to them But I smile to my-elf once more as I think of what will happin when they come to have enlidren of their own. I know what tary'll do then. They'll give it all to the children, down to the last, last drop. "-New York bun

Custom Now In Vogue on First Nights In London Playhouses.

"By the way," said a gentleman who arrived here from England a few days ago, "have you heard of the London theatrical managers' latest scheme to attract a crowd on first nights? Well, it's rather odd, and I wouldn't be surprised if the New Yorkers copied it before long, although the circumstances are somewhat different here.

"You know, the little tca and coffee rooms in London that correspond to the New York coffee and cake saloon are much more numerous than here, and there is sure to be one near every thea-

'It is the custom there for great crowds to come to the pit and gallery entrances of the theaters long before the time of opening the doors. The pit is one of the best parts of the theater for seeing and bearing, and it costs only 60 cents, but there are no reserved seats, so those who come early get the good

"It is common, in the case of important first nights, for a long line of people to form at the pit doors before it is opened, and when the play is very sucecssful and popular this may continue for an indefinite number of nights.

"It has now become the custom to admit those who care to pay sixpence extra for the privilege at 5:30. Then they get good seats, but they have to wait a prodigiously long time in their places before the play begins.

"This state of things recently inspired some ingenious manager with another happy thought. He his on the plan of providing free coffee and cakes, from the nearest tea and coffee rooms, to the crowd waiting in the pit on the first night of his new play. It proved such a good arrangement that the others followed the example."-New York Her-

Feminine Ingenuities.

Of the multifarious uses of the hair pin, some at least are well known. They are suggested by a French traveler's description of a pin which the Indian women of Peru wear as a fastening for their shawls. Its head is in the shape of a spoon. In fact, it is a spoon and a shawlpin in one.

It is odd, the Frenchman says, to see a woman pull out the pin, letting her shawl drop from her bare shoulders, and proceed to use it for eating her soup or porridge. After the repast she passes the bowl of the spoon carefully between her lips two or three times, gathers up her shawl and fastens it in place.

The same women use their slippers instead of pocketbooks - a point in which they may be said to have the advantage of their North American sisters, who, having no pockets, or none within comfortable reach, are compelled to carry their purses in their hands.

for Infants and Children.

HIRTY years' observation of Castoria with the patronage of millions of persons, permit us to speak of it without guessing. It is unquestionably the best remedy for Infants and Children the world has ever known. It is harmless. Children like it. It gives them health. It will save their lives. In it Mothers have something which is absolutely safe and practically perfect as a child's medicine.

Castoria destroys Worms. Castoria allays Feverishne -- 2. Castoria prevents vemiting Sour Curd. Castoriz cures Diarrhosa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves Teething Troubles.

Castoria cures Constipation and Flatulency. Castoria neutralizes the effects of carbonic acid gas or poisonous air. Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or other narcotic property. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep.

Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose."

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notice you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system become affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure." "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely curad, I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every invelerate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommencia.

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr
James Reid, of the town of Burnside. Trempea-leau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo."

He had chewed tobacco for over forty years. and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to lose his taste for tobacce, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured. Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S, Sawyer of Atlantic County of Cass. State of Iowa, having been an inveterate smoker of tobacco bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21 bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1894. Begun taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man. Hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain, Yours truly, WM. S. SAWHER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Gentiemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-live years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteel years I tried to quit, Lut couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac." "The Indiar Tobacco Antalote." "Poubic Chloride of Cold."
etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however. I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

This is to certify that I. F D Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes less me, and a directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarette habit or tebacale had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tebacale his to hot in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remeat that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writine. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He teld me what was the reason, brould not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in converties, it do not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the syste in.

There some the goods and thank God and all concerned, I am a sound person to-day. Hoping the star had reach the uniortunate cigarette watter, i remain.

ESTATES IN LIGHTE.

A NEW YORK CONCERN WHICH COL-LECTS LEGACIES ABROAD.

Most of the Legacles Are Small .- The Large Ones Usually 7 on Out to De Myths -One Case Where a Servant Impersonated ILLs

There is flouri-hing on a down town east side street a Legacy Advance company with a coun-for at French and German law as general manager. The offices are hand-omely appointed, and apparently the business is profitable. Most of the clients or this company are of French or German birth, and if they can satisfy the general manager that they have an inheritance coming to them from Europe they may obtain from him an advance on it. The company will either buy the inheritance outright or it will collect it on commission. New York's foreign population is large, and many of its members are living a hand to month existence waiting for relatives at home to die and leave them money. The Legacy Advance company will not discount the claims of prospective heirs because the laws in this country will not permit. In England this sort of discounting is a recognized business.

"If it were only permitted here," said the manager of the company, "there would be millions in it, but it isn't, and we don't do any of that kind of business. I know of one company in London that has made over $7,000,000 in these discounts."

This New York company finds that there is business enough in collecting inheritances, and some of the men and women who ask it for aid give it phantom chases. This is particularly true of the French claimants. They are always and our general principles expecting something from somebody. Every time the French papers announce the death of a wealthy man without heirs there is to be found some one in this city who is ready to claim relationship and a part of the estate. The Legacy Advance company takes no chances. When a claimaut satisfies the manager that he has a reasonable claim to an inheritance abroad and is willing to give a power of attorney to collect it, the manacer cables for information to his agent in the town where the estate happens to be. If he receives satisfactory evidence that the claim is a good one, he makes an advance to the heir here and sets in motion his machinery for collecting the

It is easier to collect legacies in Germany than in France, and it is easier to collect them in either country than in the United States. Moreover, it is cheaper. An estate may be settled in from six weeks to three months in Germany, whereas in this country it would take a year to bring about the same settlement.

"Most of the legacies that we have for collection," said the manager, "are small ones ranging from 2,000 to 10,000 marks. Occasionally we have a big legacy for collection, but generally big legacies prove to be myths. For instance, here is a letter that I have just received from a man in the west, who claims that the city of Amsterdam owes him $15,000,000. An ancestor of his settled there in 1795, he says, and died, leaving a big fortune, which the city appropriated, as there were apparently no heirs to claim it. This man writes that he has absolute proof that he is an heir to this estate. Unfortunately for him, all such claims were declared void by a law passed in 1555. Perhaps were it not for that law he might be able to collect sometning. Who knows? As it is, however, he is wasting his time, and I shall have to write and tell him so."

"Do you have many bogus claims presented to you?"

"Yes, there are a good many such. Sometimes the claimant himself is fooled. Not long ago a well dressed man called at our office and asked us to collect a claim for 30,000 marks from an estate that had been left in Switzerland. The man showed us his papers identifying him, and gave us a description of the property there and a complete history of it. We communicated with our agent in Switzerland and found that an estate had been left just as this man had described, and that he was one of the heirs. We were taking the necessary steps to collect it when a tramp came; into our office. He was shabbily dressed and looked as if he had been kicking around the streets for months.

"Are you collecting a legacy in Switzerland for Blank? he asked.

"'We are,' I answered, surprised that this man should know anything about it.

"'Well, you are on the wrong track," he said, 'because I am Blank, and the other man for whom you are acting is a

"His appearance didn't tend to corroborate his claim, but he told substantially the same story about the estate that the other man had told, and my curiosity was aroused. He said that the man whom we supposed to be the real Mr. Blank was, or rather had been, his servant. He had waited for an opportunity and had then robbed his master of all his money and his papers. Armed with the papers, he had been passing himself off as the real Mr. Blank. This tramp told such a circumstantial story that I was impressed by it. I got him a shave and then had him photographed. I sent this photograph with the details of the case to Switzerland, and my agent sent back word that the tramp was the real Mr. Blank, and that the other man's claim was fraudulent. The first man evidently got wind of the fact that he had been exposed, for he never turned up again. "-New York Letter.

The Weman's Edition of the Eimira (Advertiser-Easter Haiment and Raw Winds-A Little Woman's Easter Fincry-The Absurd Compulsory Education Law-A Married Woman Rounded Up and Forced to Attend Schoot.

Many copies of the woman's edition of the blmira Advertiser were gold in this city, Saturday. It was a partments were very creditable; the local field was well covered and the items were written in a fresh, crisp, unconventional style, that regular new spaper writers might imitate with advantage. The editorial page was by far the best and brightest of the paper, which, taken as a whole, was decidedly heavy. I know that this is shockingly ungaliant and I would not venture to express such an opicion if I was not at a safe enough distance from Elmira to make the wrath of Emira women a matter of unconcern. Looking at the paper from a newspaper man's point of view it seems to me that the trouble with it is that its editors were more anxious that their friends, or women of recognized social position should be numbered among the contributors to the woman's Advertiser, than they were that the articles should be | Term. the very best obtainable. That isn't the way good newspapers are made. The editors of the woman's edition of the Angus ought to be able to get from the woman's Adnertiser many valuable ideas as to what to do and what not to do in the way of making . a paper,

Many people ruebed the season, yesterday, and despite the raw and chilling wind, appeared on the streets in light overcoats and wraps. The popular notion that, no matter what the weather, Easter Sunday is the time for doning Spring garments, graveyards.

I mer a veritable little woman on ther way to Sunday School, yesterday morning, who interested me greatly. She had avidently come from a home of poverty and, worse still, from a aome in which the mother was too ignorant, too shiftless or perhaps too busy or too weak to make good use of the poor materials she could afford to buy for her child's clothing. The skirt of the dress, of coarse material and bideous pattern, bung in ungraceful bags and folds almost to her feet, for provision had evidently been made for impossible contingencies of growth. Her jacket, worn and faded, was as much too small as her dress was too large. Tucked under the dress waist was the poor girl's one bit of Easter finery, a painfully new handkerchief with a gay border, which might possibly have cost ten cents. It was folded so as to display will its beaution, and as the girl walkad along the street she smoothed and patted it, looking at it all the time to enjoy the fine effect. I could not help smiling at the little woman's wanity, and yet I could not but see the pathetic side of a life so narrow and so barren that the possession of z ten cent handkerchief was a dietinet epoch in it. I don't believe that any or the fair women who came wat, yesterday, in new gowns, new wraps and new hats got more personal satisfaction out of their Easter Enery than the little girl of whom I write got out of her Easter hanck r-- shief. And what a blessed thing it is that little things round out and fill with happiness lives to which only little things are possible.

The compulsory education law as enforced in this city is full of absurdities. This is not the fault of the Board of Education, of the Superintendent of Schools, or of the estimable bogie man who chases truents For $35 a month and "finds himself." The law is about as abourd a piece of legislation as ever found its way on the statute books, and like many recent laws is a gross invasion of priwate rights. It cannot be effectively enforced against those who ought to he reached by it, and I am very much mistaken if the lessons learned In dodging the truant officer, by begetting a contempt of all law, don't prepare the way for dodging other officers of the law in later life. It seems to me a monstrous thing that z boy or girl of school age, who hapmens to be on the street during school hours, should be subjected to also humiliation of being held up by s truant officer and compelled to slive an account of himself or herself. The law puts a premium on falselood, for it is an open secret that arents lie about the ages of their · · hildren and, worse still, tell their midren to He when questioned s conduct their ages.

Yr my indignation at this latest examplification of paternalism in government run mad, I have got far away from the particular absurdity of the law's enforcement that I had in mind. In attendance on one of the city's schools is a married wommn, who was discovered by the bogie caan to be under sixteen years of age and who was ordered by him to athand school or suffer arrest and all The solution of the law, the now leaves her household duties and trudges off to school with the other youngsters. The girl was married when only fourteen years old to a no-account fellow who is said to be in the penitentiary, which is probably a good thing, or he, too, might be found to be under age and compelled to do time in the public schools.

FATAL FALL FROM A BICYCLE.

An Employe of the Newburgh Journal Sustains a Fracture of the Skull by Being Thrown from Bis Wheel. L. Edgar Mahary, a clerk in the office of the Newburgh Journal, died. Saturday morning, from the effects of a fall from his bicycle.

The accident happened Saturday, April 6th, when two dogs that were playing in the road ran against the wheel, causing it to capsize.

The young man complained only of his knee at the time, and on Monhelps to enrich the doctors and fill the | day returned to his work. Wednesday night, however, he was seized with pains in the back, other symptoms developed, and finally it was discovered that in his fall he had sustained a fracture of the skull at the base of the brain.

The young man was twenty years old, and was very popular with all his acquaintances.

To the Public. We wish to state to the public in general and oil consumers particu larly that we are handling a superior grade of kerosene, gasolene and all lluminating oils. Our kerosene, known as White Bear Oil, is so much superior to any other in the market that some merchants are selling other oils for our goods and under our brand. On account of recent advances in price of both crude and re fined oils the merchants are obliged to retail our oil for twelve cents per gallen. We are in no way connected with any other oil company nor do we want the earth, simply fair and honest competition. If your dealer does not handle our oils insist upon his doing so and do not pay a firstclass price for a second-class product, our oils can be had from the following named merchants J. T. Robertson, J. B. Swalm, C. A. Iseman, Walter Harvey, Spooner & Ayres, J. N. Kellogg, Crans & Decker, Alida Smith, I. B. A. Taylor & Co., A. D. Terwilliger, W. H. Foster Pronk & Foster, J. J.
